

Heaven's Descent

Neaera

Arrogance is not strenght!
There is no grace in apathy!

In the veils of stasis divine
You preach obsessive concealment
Heads held high in falsest pride
Steadfast in the storm of truth

There is a fury
That bears your name
A call to break this vow of shame
This is your judgement
Repent
Heavens descent

You follow the bygone belief
That time erases guilt

The higher you place yourself
The deeper you fall

Those who turned to you for guidance
Received the seed of woe
A gift from the core of filth how does ist feel to murder a soul?

A waning light
A slow descent
