

In Defiance

Neaera

Resignation will claw your thoughts
Dont give it room to breathe
Every journey starts with the first step
Fortitude conquers - hesitation enslaves

The daring will blaze the trail
For open minded to follow
The insurmountable
Nothing but a stepping stone

Dont give in to the fears that loom
In defiance of your void
Exhaustion will wear your soul
Let it never prevail

Some will fall to your left and right
Yearning for relief
Starving for relief

Betrayed by fear
Torn by inner throes
Cathartic surge
Prosperity

Dont give in to the fears that loom
In defiance of your void
Exhaustion will wear your soul
Let it never prevail

Yearning for relief
