Let the Tempest Come

Neaera

I stand on different lines and dance on twisted knives and if I fall the fall you will not se me crawl

The gravitation's fading who the hell Am I? the muddy waves of chaos they take me in and rise

Let it come down
let the tempes come
"it will be rain to-night"
let the tempest come

These wounds won't kill me they'll make me grow inside I will try to use them and wear my scars with pride

Fear, failure, hurt, wrath won't take my lust for life Solace, love, courage, grip wil make me survive
