Tyranny of Want

Neaera

We have unleashed
A cold disease
With a fragile core
And an iron shell
The masters have become the slaves
Control deprived we crave and crave

Enmeched in the machinery knowing only one direction: F O R W A R D

Crowning greed with a halo of need No one foresees when everyone seeks The masters have become the slaves Control deprived we crave and crave

We have sacrificed the source To worship the stream The mind is obsolete Where means are absolute

A system to serve mankind Mankind to serve the system Closer and higher Until the world's on fire

A system to serve mankind Mankind to serve the system Closer and higher Until the world's on fire
