

A-OK

Neal McCoy

Oh, oh, it's alright
Everybody's gotta get loose sometime
If you're uptight, better let it unwind
It's alright, it's alright

Oh, oh it's okay, save your troubles for another day
Put a big ol' smile back on your face
It looks to me like it's gonna be A-O, A-O, A-OK
It's gonna be A-O, A-O, A-OK

Let me raise a toast to all of those
Who are feeling just like me
Peak your head out the covers

There's a whole lot of others
Who are tired of losing sleep
And say no to all of those worries
That are holding you down

'Cause it's good for the soul
To get up and go
Take it all in to town

Oh, oh it's alright
Everybody's gotta get loose sometime
If you're uptight, better let it unwind
It's alright, it's alright

Oh, oh it's okay, save your troubles for another day
Put a big ol' smile back on your face
It looks to me like it's gonna be A-O, A-O, A-OK
It's gonna be A-O, A-O, A-OK

So go on, take off like a rocket through the sky
If it feels good, well that's good
You don't need another reason why
Or you could lay there like a book on a shelf

But a wiser man would say
It's gonna be A-O, A-O, A-OK
It's gonna be A-O, A-O, A-OK

Oh, oh it's alright
Everybody's gotta get loose sometime
If you're uptight, better let it unwind
It's alright, it's alright

Oh, oh it's okay, save your troubles for another day
Put a big ol' smile back on your face
It looks to me like it's gonna be A-O, A-O, A-OK
It's gonna be A-O, A-O, A-OK
It's gonna be A-O, A-O, A-OK
