Circle Of Burned Doves

Necromantia

Innocence is payed in flesh we lost our souls and loved ones white as doves and red like blood a living pyre for your god

We have walked the paths of the seven black Kami we have cleansed ourselves by torment pain and anguish

9 days and 9 nights riding the storms of Raiden embracing the flames of Rinjin calling the dreams of Kappa

Through Shinto chants and Oni spells with blades and hooks we tore our flesh we glorified our suffering and paved the way for Tengu

O lord of thousand faces and a million cruel ways posses this vessel of your slave fill it with strength and hatred

I can see the blue-black flames dancing around your aura I can feel your inner rage which paints your ki in scarlet

[chorus] Circle of burned doves an ancient path of vengeance circle of burned doves a legacy of nightmares
