Each Dawn I Die

Necromantia

Passing through the storm Led by Demons - walk between the World of men and gods Cast no shadows - draw no light.
I rape the priestess on pagans night.

I taste the serpents poison
On the lips of the one I love.
She brings this gift of witchcraft.
I wear the cat-skin-gloves.

Apples of youth when I wrought Mischief, hung in a tree to rot In the sun.
Reborn in the middle of the Final orgy the gift of slavery To the chosen one.

Suicide Suicide don't you know Me-call to the Master - he will Come. - He will bring out Ressurection-cloaked in darkness - He has won.

Smoke of my sacrifice.

Journey to the Isle of the Blessed.

Grant my soul your glory.

At night time - I'm your guest.

Only I know why

Each dawn I die.
