My World Your Hell

Necromantia

As the sun slowly fades
And the light begins to dim
When the night conquers day
My world of cruelty is revealed

Behind closed doors and sealed rooms Your lusts, desires, fears and thoughts Crawl from your souls like humble worms Ready to beg my demons

My world, your hell
My lust, your pain
Our world, your hell
An orchestrated torment

My scarlet whores will quench your thirst My minions will fulfill your greed The blood of children for your hate Venoms and poisons for your pain

My world, your hell
My lust, your pain
Our world, your hell
An orchestrated torment

Wombs bearing sin and malevolence Are waiting for your semen Treacherous serpents of the mind Will lead you to your murder

Devilish tongues licking your veins Taking away your sorrow A sinister urge to assassinate Hallucinating power

It's good to know you're satisfied
It's good to know you're happy
Entrapped into my tempting world
The one you know as hell

My world, your hell
My lust, your pain
Our world, your hell
An orchestrated torment
