Where Sinners Burn

Necrophobic

Holy father in the sky
Inhuman lord of darkest lies
We burn the feeble christian cross
And curse the holy son of God

At dawn we summon the master below The horned one shall take your soul Behold the shadows of the moon And wish you were never born

Holy father
We are the worshippers of darkness
Holy father
Feel our hate from below *
We are the sons of hell
We shall live on forever
We are the ones who sold our souls
In the unholy name of evil

Behold the flames of hell The abyss where sinners burn Forever you shall dwell In the fires without return

No god shall ever live No lies shall ever be told We desecrate Jesus Christ And turn the crucufix upside down

Burn the corpse of Jehova In the flames of hell it shall be done Devour the holy Messiah Consume the forgotten son

The paradise is no more
The burning of heaven I behold
My vision of hell was true
As it was foretold
