

To Be Right

Ned's Atomic Dustbin

I'm there to be had, I've taken a bite, I'll do what you ask - if you do what I like
I only want it to be right, I only want it to be right
I hide my head when you say you're courageous
You still don't sweat, did you say something dangerous?

We ought to be happy, I ought to feel cleansed, I've got no illusion
we could ever be friends
I only wanted the quiet life! I only wanted the quiet life!

I hide my head then you say you're courageous
You still don't sweat did you say something dangerous?
You pull my hair, you ask me to elaborate
I'll hide again, you dare me to retaliate

I only wanted to be right, I only wanted the quiet life
