

Stones Under Rushing Water

NEEDTOBREATHE

Why don't we, dance anymore,
I'm not okay with that.
Why don't we, laugh anymore,
I'm not okay with that.

'Cause the years, go by,
Like stones under rushing water.
We only know, we only know when it's gone.
Yeah, the years go by,
Like stones under rushing water.
We only know, we only know when it's gone.

Why don't we smile anymore,
I'm not okay with that.
Why don't we dance slowly,
I'm not okay with that.

'Cause the years, go by,
Like stones under rushing water.
We only know, we only know when it's gone.
Yeah the years, go by,
Like stones under rushing water ,
We only know, we only know when its gone.
Oh, when it's gone.

'Cause the years, go by,
Like stones under rushing water.
We only know, we only know when it's gone.
Yeah, the years go by,
Like stones under rushing water.
We only know, we only know when it's gone.

Why don't we dance anymore.
