Even if you change, I need to never change
Even if it's a lie, please tell me 'I love you'
I was not able to draw the picture.
I want to draw the picture of hope.
I want to draw the white world.
Even if you are in the black world.
I believe that you are white.
I remembered you and me to snuggle up to.
I drew two flowers.
This picture is not sad.
However, why am I sad?
Time passes heartlessly.
Only numbers increase now.
Please...please think of me only even today.
What do you think?
Whom do you think of?

What do you suffer now?
I'm very painful in suffering of you.
I wanna meet you.
I wanna touch you.
Because I still love you
