

Childhood Memories

Negative

Broken childhood persecutes me
I'm easy to offend, so why you hurt me?
You can call me anything you want,
But don't never ever call me a skeleton

You are awful and you know it too
And I don't need your advice on how to live
I hate you too,
I forgive you,
But I am not your slave

Oh no you did it not care

One word more and I'm ready to hate you
Hello my name is revolution
You try to remove me but that's too hard
And even if I forgive you
For what you said
I won't stand you

You are awful and you know it too
And I don't need your advice on how to live
I hate you too,
I forgive you,
But I am not your slave

Oh no you did it not care

If you are awful I can't no one tell
And I don't need your advice on how to live
I hate you too,
I forgive you,
But I am not your slave

Oh no you did it not care
