

Days I'm Living For

Negative

So you want me to say something wise and clever
I write it out in a song instead of a letter My o my, can't describe how hard I've tried to discover the feeling inside While the road ahead keeps turning

And I know I couldn't stay beside you now
It's been shown without a word this love's a crime After all that we've been through there's a life after you And I hope you'll be alright I'm moving on Days I'm living for

Shine a light, when my days get dark and hollow the brightest star in the sky is the guide I'll follow My o my, felt the shiver down my spine like a victim of a crime
It's a pill that's hard to swallow

And I know I couldn't stay beside you now

I go out
I'm impressed by the sound
So sweet and cruel

I turn around as I fall to the ground
It's my deja vu

I walk and walk, 'till the borderline and further I go
I know I was right to let go
