

In Memoriam (Immortal Peace)

Negative

Like seasons change their face rain like the tears winds got your voice whispering my name Landing shadows come around telling me the same old story with certain sound I'm stuck in a place prisoner of this room painful memories of me and you I take colors of longing and paint you on my wall
Is it too much to ask for some golden peace that's what I expect from you at least it's simple and understood there's no way out...

I wish that I would be dead dead like you and I falling like a butterfly after one lived day hope you will find your peace immortal eternal and real I know I cannot be dead yet just can't live it again...

Too much never enough we're stuck in time till death leads us away In a moment that I'm scared the most you're sleeping away soon you'll be lost every breath that you take you'll be closer to where you belong I never thought this could be so hard and rough after all we've been through can't get enough of this sweetest trip you once gave me as a gift...

I hope you're waiting for me somewhere out there in a place where we can hold each other again you went first I'll come right after you I'm depressed I don't care...
I miss you,
I hope you hear me...
