

Locked in the Dark

Negative

Waiting for something, something
More to live for... it has taken too
Long since I've had something to hold on.

I'm locked in a darkside,
Locked in a darkside.

What if that all we felt inside
Is just illusion, a waste of time
And every tear we cried inside
Is just a sign we went too far

Waiting for something, something more
To fight for... finding pieces, now
I'm part of it. It`s part of me...
