

One Last Shot

Negative

We used to be so perfect
we came together fine
it seemed like a crime
This world so blind
we once created
more than a fairytale
Oh, how we shined
Not anymore

I sing for justice
Here we stand in time Waiting for our one last shot Shot to come in

This world so blind
we once created
where faked, painted smiles felt so naked
I was blind without a stick Taste of morphine on your lips made me sick

Never learned to love surprises Respecting how we swore Eye for an eye
Smile for a smile

When your wings are torn
The distance between right and wrong is too short and it feels you got nothing left to lose Sky above falling down
You feel abused

And I don't want it
no I don't want it
This endless mile
That we are walking Waiting for one last shot
To come in
But we need it Somehow we need it
This unknown that we're suffering for Losing hold of what we were before

Where's the mercy?
When we needed the most When can't hold on I'll be ok
I'll be alright
Nothing can brake me down
No one can hurt me
As long as you say That you'll stay another day
