Only sorrow and pain will fill your heart tonight
Only thing that will remain

Could it get worse? It's a one way street down
With every gasp it hurts never pleasant kinda way
This love was a curse and we were just framed
It all comes back crying out your name

Only sorrow and pain will fill your heart tonight
Only thing that will remain is your heart next to mine
Sorrow and pain.... Only sorrow and pain

There was a time when you walked in beauty
Now you're alone but there are millions just like you
Why should you fight, no one's safe from the cruelty
The worst part is yet to come...

Only sorrow and pain will fill your heart tonight
Only thing that will remain is your heart next to mine
Sorrow and pain... Only sorrow and pain

Only sorrow and pain will fill your heart tonight
Only thing that will remain is your heart next to mine
Sorrow and pain... Only sorrow and pain
