

As Long as I Live

Neil Sedaka

As long as I live an the long I can give will be yours alone
never before did I need someone more for my very own.
For as long as I live
I will love only you
When I'm in your arms
dreams come true
Ev'ry beat of my heart
an the love I can give will always be yours for the long as I live.

I held you tight in the still of the night and the world was mine
I never knew that the nearness of you could be so divine.
For as long as I live
I will love only you
When I'm in your arms
dreams come true
Ev'ry beat of my heart
an the love I can give
will always be yours for as long as I live
