

Going Home to Mary Lou

Neil Sedaka

Ding dong ding dong click clack a chugga chugga
Ding dong ding dong do
Ding dong ding dong click clack a chugga chug
I'm going home to Mary Lou

Down at the station early in the morning
Waiting for the 602
To carry me back to Tennessee
To the arms of Mary Lou

Ring that bell and blow that whistle cause I want the world to know
I'm heading home to my honeycomb
I really miss her so

Ding dong ding dong click clack a chugga chugga
Ding dong ding dong do (going back to Mary Lou)
Ding dong ding dong click clack a chugga chug
I'm going home to Mary Lou

Whoo!

Spin those wheels and let's get a-going
Keep a moving down the line
Each mile we do brings me closer to
That sweet little gal of mine

Ding dong ding dong click clack a chugga chugga
Ding dong ding dong do
Ding dong ding dong click clack a chugga chug
I'm going home to Mary Lou
Hey, now, sir
Ding dong ding dong click clack a chugga chugga
Ding dong ding dong do (going back to Mary Lou)
Ding dong ding dong click clack a chugga chugga
I'm going home to Mary Lou
Going home to Mary Lou
Going home to Mary Lou
Going home to Mary Lou
Going home to Mary Lou
Going home to