

I Got To Believe In Me Again

Neil Sedaka

I don't need you anymore
Take a walk right out the door
I don't want you any more
You're not the one I'm living for

Oh no, no, no, no
I've taken all the lies I can
Goodbye, so long
You think that you could play me
Like a puppet on a string

I'm not gonna do that thing again
No, no, no, no

You cheated, you lied
Not gonna take your alibi
It might take some time
But I'll be strong and I'll get by

You bet I will start to live
And breathe again
Spread my wings and fly
It's not so long ago
That I can't remember where

Got to believe in me again
Got to believe in me again

It was just a silly crush
That shook me by surprise
Who'd have ever think
I'd fall for your lying eyes

I will wish you happiness
And it was fun I must confess
But we'll get on with our lives
And I'll be strong and I'll get by

You bet I will, I'll start to live
And breathe again
Spread my wings and fly
It's not so long ago
That I can't remember where

Got to believe in me again
Got to believe in me again

If I pass you on the streets
I know my heart might skip a beat
But I'll keep on straight ahead
And I will miss you in my bed

Oh no, no, no, no
I've taken all the lies I can
Goodbye, so long
You think that you could play me

I'm not gonna do that thing again
Got to believe in me again
Got to believe in me again
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Got to believe in me again
Got to believe in me again
Got to believe in me again
Got to believe in me again

Got to believe in me again
Got to believe in me again
