

Living in a Fantasy

Neil Sedaka

How can I stop this rain from fallin
How can I stop my heart from calling your name?
This ain't the way it's supposed to be
I'm living in a fantasy for your love.

Do you think of me when we're apart?
If I can think with my head and not my heart.
It's so sad so sad to see..
I'm living in a fantasy for your love.

Days not complete if I don't hear your voice.
Sweet darlin I got no choice.
Always wondering who's kissin you now.
Tryin to hold on, make it somehow.

Can't fight this feelin that's so strong.
How can something so right turn out so wrong?
Why don't you listen to my plea?
I'm living in a fantasy for your love.

People always envy me,
They're not walking in my shoes.
They'll never, never know,
How I've been singin the blues.

Can't make you love me if you don't.
You want me to grovel on my knees but I won't.
You're making my lose my sanity.
I'm living in a fantasy for your love.

I know you're sweet sweet and fine.
But how many others are really on your mind?
There's no future left for me,
I'm living in a fantasy for your love.
