

Waiting

Neil Sedaka

Like a starry night without the moon up in the sky
Like a bird in flight who broke his wing and couldn't fly
Since you've been away, all I do is pray
And I'll keep waiting

Like a carousel that's spinning round without a child
Like a fallen clown who tries to laugh but lost his smile
How can I go on, all in life is gone
But I'll keep waiting

Until you come back home, keep on waiting
I still see your face but you're not here

Crying in the night, I will call your name
I just can't believe that you're really gone
Until you're by my side, I'll keep on waiting

Like a photograph that fades away with passing time
Like a misty song that doesn't play and lost its rhyme
How can I go on, all in life is gone
But I'll keep waiting

Until you come back home
I'll keep on waiting
I still see your face
But you're not here

Crying in the night, I will call your name
I just can't believe you're really gone
Until you're by my side, I'll keep on waiting

Since you've been away all I do is pray
That you'll come to me, come back in my life

With all that we've been through
I can't stop loving you and I keep waiting
Keep on waiting, keep on waiting
Waiting, waiting
