

A Rock Star Bucks a Coffee Shop

Neil Young

If you don't like to rock Starbucks A coffee shop Well you better change your station 'cause that ain't all that we got

Yeah, I want a cup of coffee but I don't want a GMO
I like to start my day off without helping Monsanto

Monnnnnnn-sannnnnnn-toooooooooo

Let our farmers grow what they want to grow

From the fields of Nebraska to the banks of the Ohio
The farmers won't be free to grow what they want to grow
When corporate control takes over the American farm
With fascist politicians and chemical giants walking arm in arm

Monnnnnnn-sannnnnnn-toooooooooo

Let our farmers grow what they want to grow

When the people of Vermont wanted to label food with GMOs
So that they could find out what was in what the farmer grows
Monsanto and Starbucks through the Grocery Manufacturers Allian ce
They sued the state of Vermont to overturn the people's will

Monnnnnnn-sannnnnnn-toooooooooo (and Starbucks)

Mothers want to know what they feed their children

Monnnnnnn-sannnnnnn-toooooooooo

Let our farmers grow what they want to groooooooooow
