I don't like to go down to flats 'Cause I can't park on a hill Instead getting a rolling start I have to pay the bill.

I guess I need that city life
It sure has lots of style
But pretty soon it wears me out
And I have to think to smile.

I'm thankful for my country home It gives me peace of mind Somewhere I can walk alone And leave myself behind.

It's only someone else's potatoes You pickin' someone else's patch And if you go down there anyway It very seldom lasts.

I found that out once long ago
And it sure got me confused
I still don't know which way to go
To lose those old spud blues.

I'm thankful for my country home It gives me peace of mind Somewhere I can walk alone And leave myself behind.
