I Wonder If I Care as Much

Neil Young

I wonder if I care as much As I did before

Last night I cried myself to sleep For the one that makes me weep I dried my eyes to greet the day, And wondered why I had to pay The tears that I have shed by day Give relief and wash away The memory of the night before I wonder if I'll suffer more

I wonder if I care as much As I did before

My pride is made to say forgive, And take the blame for what you did, It's your mistakes I'm thinkin' of, I wonder if I'm still in love. My heart can't thrive on misery, My life it has no destiny, When things get more Than I can bear, I ask myself "Do I still care?" I wonder if I care as much As I did before
