Over and Over

At night when the sky is clear And the moon is shining down My heart goes running back to you I love the way You open up and let me in So I go running back to you, Over and over again.

Over and over again my love Over and over again with you Over and over again my love Over and over again with you.

Remember the nights of love And that moment on the beach That wasn't really too long ago But we paid the price of time, And now it's out of reach And so the broken circle go, Over and over again

Over and over again my love Over and over again with you Over and over again my love Over and over again with you.

Somewhere in a fire of love, Our dreams went up in smoke We danced beneath silver rain Upon the fields of green, Where time was just a joke And now the feeling's Just the same, Over and over again.

Over and over again my love Over and over again with you Over and over again my love Over and over again with you.
