

Burn Out My Eyes

Nektar

Where is my day
Where are my nights
They're all gone to sleep
They all said goodnight

Where are my days
Where are my nights
Won't you tell me

Very soon there's gonna come a day
When they're all gonna run away
Leaving only lifeless forms of yesterday

You keep saying the time is almost here
But I know within my mind you only live in fear

Now the sense that stops me going blind
Makes me wish that I was drinking wine
Leaving only lifeless forms that used to be my mind
Destruction of the senses and the burning of my eyes
