

G.E.S.

Nellie McKay

There you are
There you're good and gleaming
There you are
There you're bold and beaming
There you sit
Every bit built to last

There you were
There you traveled slowly
There you were
You were life unfolding
Now you've quit
Now they've broken the mass

Doo doo doo...
The town's for sale
Doo doo doo...
It never fails

And I can make it happen
And I can make it fun
And I can watch it flatten out
And I can make it run
