

Yodel

Nellie McKay

Standin' in the break of a yawn where you done left me alone
There's nothin' happenin' to hide
Sittin' in the shade of the lawn as everybody goes home
There's nothin' left here to find

Standin' with my back to the wall
Mindin' the sky as it's fallin' all around me
Listenin' for a break in the rain
For it's not drownin' my pain anymore

Standin' in the shade of the yard where everybody works hard
And everybody is dyin'
Walkin' up the town boulevard where I'm found out as a fraud
And there's nobody who's buyin'
