Ya'll already know what this is homeboy
No no no no no nigga
Fuck what you heard homeboy
Real niggas on deck
Goons is out nigga hey

We do 100 on the highway
Switching lane after lane
If the po po come then let em
Ain't no stopping today
We brought them horses out tonight (hey)
Them big blocks dude
Cams chrome pipes (hey)
I know you hear em
Please, who in your hood would trade places with me
If I ain't what ya trying to be than why you hustling see
To be young black and rich
If that ain't the combination
Tell me when it switched
I need to know (listen)
Maybe the problem is your thinking to small
You niggas only wanna rap and that's all
Your only goal is to buy out the mall
I go and buy me a mall
You want the stuff for the summer
I'm gon buy me the fall
And hit the myspace lick (yeaaaah)
You know how many hits myspace gets (yeaaaah)
Man it's like I'm hurting feelings just by telling the truth
I'm hurting feelings in and out of this booth
Now listen

You see me sitting in the turning lane (whoohoo)
Yours big but mine bigger mane
You wanna brag about a lil change
You need to step up your game lil boy
You better Hold up (6x)
You better sit your ass down
Hold up (6x)

Acting like I ain't paid what you talking bout

You sold a couple records how you think you gon do me
You know I'm in shape I slap you you gon try and sue me
I buy you off slide off with your lil cutie
All the money is a god damn nusense
Look at my career yeah I'm the blueprint

Yours big but mine bigger mane
You wanna brag about a lil change
You need to step up your game lil boy
You better Hold up (6x)
You better sit your ass down
You better Hold up (6x)
