Neon Hitch

I tried to keep you by my side
Every time you said goodbye, it's salt in my eyes
All black if you'll turn your back
I hate the way that people say we overreact

You're my Clyde and I'm your Bonnie
Our life is a movie
Don't need cameras, don't need lights
'Cause we always will be there

Don't speak, I know you love me
When I'm lying beside you
We don't need no subtitles
You make my body weak
Oh, it's about to get wild
We don't need no subtitles

Don't have to spell it out
I feel you clearer now
'Cause we don't need no subtitles
This time I've seen it all inside my crystal ball
And we don't need no subtitles

Two hearts, we beat in the dark
Like Marilyn and Kennedy, can't keep us apart

You're my Clyde and I'm your Bonnie
Our life is a movie
Don't need cameras, don't need lights
'Cause we always will be there

Don't speak, I know you love me
When I'm lying beside you
We don't need no subtitles
You make my body weak
Oh, it's about to get wild
We don't need no subtitles

Don't have to spell it out
I feel you clearer now
'Cause we don't need no subtitles
This time I've seen it all inside my crystal ball
And we don't need no subtitles

Black and white film, crying at the morbid scenes
She's Norma Gene normally having enormous dreams
Two lovers who hardly talk to each other
The lust speaks louder than words, like a silent movie
And more gangsta flicks, that real gangsta shit
Got a sidekick gypsy chick robbing banks and shit
Wanna hit that? My baby girl, she gets that
She gets cash then gets back, money stashed in her head wrap
You and me? We should probably slide
Like Bonnie and Clyde hot on an anonymous ride
I got a fully loaded Tommy inside for the red light
'Cause I'd rather be dead wrong rather than dead, right?
She always wanted to journey the world far

So she left town with a movie star
I guess she always fell for the bad boys even though he cheats a lot
'Cause love isn't really love till you bleed a lot
He say come on, it'll be so fun, the next train leaves at 3:01
But that's for me, yo, I didn't get inside
I found a rickshaw to lean on, put my knee on it and hitched a ride
Ay, ay, ay, lucky me, in fact, she died in her man's arms when that train crashed
So maybe there is beauty in tragedy like Neverland
But what's the point in paradise when no one's there to share it with?

Don't speak, I know you love me
When I'm lying beside you
We don't need no subtitles
You make my body weak
Oh, it's about to get wild
We don't need no subtitles

Don't have to spell it out
I feel you clearer now
'Cause we don't need no subtitles
This time I've seen it all inside my crystal ball
And we don't need no subtitles
