

Alarm

Neon Trees

Ah ah oh
Ah ah oh

Lately I've been spread thin
Pulled in all directions
My heart feels like a motor
My head still needs your shoulder
Lately all I'm hearing
Is my own heavy breathing
And everybody laughing
At me and all my demons on display
My head feels like a mess
I'm running from the past
I always feel uneasy
And then you turn to ask me

Why are you so alarmed
You got me tied to a time bomb
Alarm, alarm, alarm
I don't wanna wake up
I just wanna stay home
Why are you so alarmed
You got me tied to a time bomb
Alarm, alarm, alarm
I don't wanna wake up
I just wanna stay home

Everybody scares me
And seeing you just tears me
Apart to tiny pieces
Scattered around the room and left to burn
I wanna give some away
My friends don't seem to care
Let me introduce you to
The logic behind dreaming all day long
My head feels like a mess
I'm falling through the cracks
I always feel uneasy
And then you turn to ask me

Why are you so alarmed
You got me tied to a time bomb
Alarm, alarm, alarm
I don't wanna wake up
I just wanna stay home
Why are you so alarmed
You got me tied to a time bomb
Alarm, alarm, alarm
I don't wanna wake up

My clock before I die
How much time is enough time
To find out who and why
I don't think I'll ever find
No I know I'll never find

The person I'm meant to share
The rest of my life with

Why are you so alarmed
Why are you so alarmed

Ah oh oh
Ah oh oh
Alarm, alarm, alarm, alarm, alarm
I just wanna stay home
Ah oh oh
Ah oh oh
