

Love And Affection

Neon Trees

Everybody's tellin' everybody off
It's the last thing I wanna hear
You've been killing me for days and days it seems
But the truth is the thing I fear
I just don't understand
Why my love isn't good enough
I just don't understand
Why my love isn't good enough for you
I want you to show me

Put yourself in my shoes
Put yourself in my shoes
I don't know what you've been told
The rich get rich, the poor Grow old
When everybody's blood runs cold
It's time for something real Ah ah ah ah
