Love And Affection

Neon Trees

Everybody's tellin' everybody off It's the last thing I wanna hear You've been killing me for days and days it seems But the truth is the thing I fear I just don't understand Why my love isn't good enough I just don't understand Why my love isn't good enough for you I want you to show me

Put yourself in my shoes Put yourself in my shoes I don't know what you've been told The rich get rich, the poor Grow old When everybody's blood runs cold It's time for something real Ah ah ah ah
