

Junebug

Nerina Pallot

1, 2, 3, 4
Lets take off all our clothes
And wander through the fields
At night, lets go
That hour just before the sun comes as magic
Its magic, oh for sure

And we won't get old enough in time
Oh its not getting easier
So lets just pretend the world is fine
Oh, fine...

How do we know when we met we would feel this?
How do we know it would be so beautiful?
How do we know we would get so serious?
Oh, the Junebug, Junebug...
How do we know when we met we would feel this?
How do we know it would be so beautiful?
How do we know we would get so serious?
Oh, the Junebug, Junebug...

The broken hearted trees are only needing love
From little people like you and me
And the broken hearted sky says you'll learn to smile
If you and I give it a try

People get old enough in time
Lets just live in the moment
Lets just pretend the world is fine
Oh, fine...

How do we know when we met we would feel this?
How do we know it would be so beautiful?
How do we know we would get so serious?
Oh, the Junebug, Junebug...
How do we know when we met we would feel this?
How do we know it would be so beautiful?
How do we know we would get so serious?
Oh, the Junebug, Junebug...

Doo, doo doo...
Ooooh....

How do we know when we met we would feel this?
How do we know it would be so beautiful?
How do we know we would get so serious?
Oh, the Junebug, Junebug...
How do we know when we met we would feel this?
How do we know it would be so beautiful?
How do we know we would get so serious?
Oh, the Junebug, Junebug...

La la la - Junebug
La la la - the Junebug...
