

This Year's Model

Nerina Pallot

It started in the fall with familiar colors
Now the sky is turning into snow
Snow into circles of a question, double nature
Why you falling to a great unknown

Like an atheist in a hospital church
You're drive to your knees
You've got nothing to lose 'cause it's already gone
You're just wishing

So give me a sign
Is this year's model all that it's cracked up to be?
Give me a sign
Is this year's model something that I can't believe?

Singing in the dark
Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder
Is anybody there?
Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder

Black into black, our familiar color
It's all I ever seem to see
Splashes of dirty, neon so my heart bring majesty
And I'm gripping hard, I'm holding tight
I'm keeping his hand into mine
But it's so small, god, it's so small

So give me a sign
Is this year's model all that it's cracked up to be?
Give me a sign
Is this year's model something that I can't believe?

Singing in the dark
Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder
Is anybody there?
Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder

I'm singing in the dark
Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder
Is anybody there?
Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder

When it all stops feel my heart beat
But I don't wanna think and I don't wanna speak
When it all stops feel my heart beat
But I don't wanna think and I don't wanna speak

I don't wanna think and I don't wanna speak
I don't wanna think at all

So give me a sign
Is this year's model all that it's cracked up to be?
Give me a sign
Is this year's model something that I can't believe?

Singing in the dark
Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder

Is anybody there?

Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder

I'm singing in the dark

Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder

Is anybody there?

Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder

I'm singing in the dark

Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder

Is anybody there?

Turn it up louder, turn it up louder, turn it up louder
