

Will You Still Love Me

Nerina Pallot

When all of the world is ended
All of our beauty turned to dust
The fires of youth all faded
Every empire left to rust

Will you still love me?
Will you still want me?
Will you still need me,
Anyway?

'Cause I'll always want you with me
When you are old and full of sleep
Oh love is a contagious thing
Unfathomable, timeless, deep

Will you still love me?
Will you still want me?
Will you still need me,
Anyway?

'Cause you'll still be my green-eyed boy
And I'll still want to stay up nights
And dance till the sun comes up over the hills
And when there are no hills
There'll still be you

Will you still love me?
Will you still want me?
Will you still need me,
Anyway?
Anyway?