

The Cyber Waltz

Neurotech

this immaculate guilt has caused me more pain than i'll ever need more than i'll ever need you sleep so long so you don't feel life is too ugly when it's real for you

no

it's the feeling..

..like something was taken from me
yet nothing can stop us now

let's dance
the cyber waltz
let's dance
another cyber waltz

turn the page for all of us three much needed of serenity in need of serenity

below this greed and lust we are torn the plot will thicken as we want more
no

it's the feeling..

let's dance
the cyber waltz
let's dance
another cyber waltz

this time you will listen to me i am sick of this fake honesty in this triangle of nothing you wake up only when things get real life is ugly when you feel so fuck it

and let's dance

let's dance
the cyber waltz
let's dance
another cyber waltz
