

You sleep all day and infest the night.
That's everything you offer.
You are compulsive and you're not afraid to show.
Everybody tells you something's wrong.
You don't believe and you will suffer.
You are too young and you lack the will to grow.

You do ignore me. You don't listen to what I say.
You do ignore me. You don't recall me.
You do ignore me. A game that I won't play.
You do ignore me. This isn't for me.

You lose yourself in the neon lights
in hope it makes you rougher.
An occupation that you'll always have to show.
Indecent moves may appeal to you.
There's nothing left you cover.
You're not prepared and you still don't want to know.

You do ignore me. You don't listen to what I say.
You do ignore me. You don't recall me.
You do ignore me. A game that I won't play.
You do ignore me. This isn't for me.
