

Hospitality

Neuroticfish

I want hospitality
I need hospitality
I ask hospitality
Something that you never gave to me

Nailed to the ground; forced to be bound Nothing's perfect except the nightly sounds
Taking my breath; taking all I have Rejecting; neglecting; living with my death

I want hospitality
I need hospitality
I ask hospitality
Something that you never gave to me

Losing my will; expecting not to kill My pleasure; my treasure; something that I feel
Never looking back; never try to crack My fantasies; my memories; my aphrodisiac

I want hospitality
I need hospitality
I ask hospitality
Something that you never gave to me
