

Watching every breath you take
Everywhere you go
Watching every move you make
Everything I have to know

I see you in the darkness
I see you in the light
I see you in the breaking dawn
I see you in the daylight

I will always follow you
Unless I have to die
I will always stay beside you
Unless I have to fly

You will never see me
You can even feel me inside

You know that I am just behind
When you close the door
But you never find out
What I've been looking for

I don't want to touch you
Only in my mind
I just want to see you
Or I will be blind

I will always follow you
Unless I have to die
I will always stay beside you
Unless I have to fly

You will never see me
You can even feel me inside

Inside, all is quiet and calm
Inside, I'll keep you safe from harm
Inside, all is perfect here
Inside, as long as I am here
Inside, I'm coming over you
Inside, and all I want to do
Inside, to keep your fears in me
Inside, to have you close to me
