

Mechanic Of The Sequence

Neuroticfish

I don't sympathize with your way of living
I don't synchronize my life to your point of view
I don't want to live in a way without giving
I don't want to live in the way I love you

The mechanic of the sequence; the power to progress
We have no time to waste; no time to relax
The passion of beginning; it's the pleasure of the end
It's watching things we initiate to a state we never meant
(To a state we never meant)

You--you act like a puppet
You--you can move without strings
You--you want to be remoted
Because you are unable to fly without wings
