

Hard Headed

Never Heard of It

Have you ever felt some days
You might just fade away
You had it in your hands
And you watched it slip through once again

Like a broken glass stone
Your not good for anything
Your not going to cut me down
I'm going to play your stupid games

'Cause I'm the guy
Who's always wasted everything
You can try and stop me steppin' in the rain
'Cause I'm so hard head, idiotic, self centered,

It's ironic nothing ever matter to me
'Til the time you thought you knew me
I know you really want it
That's just the fun of it

You'll keep on coming back
Its not a promise its a fact
As time goes by
You made the choices we all know are right

Your so cool
You'll probably smoke some pot
Then drop out of school
But what do I give and what do I know

Stabbed in the back as soon as we watch you go
'Cause I'm the guy
Who's always wasted everyday
You can try and stop me steppin' in the rain

[Chorus x2]

I'm another lost cause and I owe it to myself
If you take your good will shit
And go lie to someone else
'Cause I'm the guy

Who's always wasted everyday
And you can try and stop me steppin in the rain

[Chorus: x3]
