

This Is Goodbye

Never Heard of It

Another perfect day, I can't remember when
I've ever felt like this...
Yeah! This is my chance to get away.
Start with nothing that's fine.
Send a postcard and say goodbye, this is goodbye!

Can't you see
That it's over but just a new start for me,
It's the best that I can do,
Keep this with you,
Flip it over that's where I'll be...
I'm sorry...

Don't plan on coming back.
Leave behind everything.
For once do something right.
Yeah! No one believed half of what I'd say.
But it's different this time
Here's my post card to say goodbye...
This is goodbye...

Can't you see
That it's over but just a new start for me.
It's the best that I can do,
Keep this with you,
Flip it over that's where I'll be...
I'm sorry...

Can't you see
That it's over but just a new start for me,
It's the best that I can do,
Keep this with you,
Flip it over that's where I'll be...
I'm sorry...
