

Falling Apart

Neverending White Lights

Hey child
Kick open the night
Kick open the night and I'm fall, yeah I'm falling apart

Ask me
All these memories
All these memories got me fall, yeah I'm falling apart

Too far
Everyone's a star
Everyone's a star yeah they're fall, yeah they're falling apart

Who're you
Never wanna lose
Never wanna lose but you do

White light
Now there is a knife
Now there is a knife and she's fall, yeah she's falling apart

So long
Everyone is gone
Everyone is gone yeah they're fall, yeah they're falling apart

A slide
Love is suicide
Love is suicide and I'm fall, yeah I'm falling apart
Apart
Apart
Apart

So get it out of your head
They're pulling you back
After all that was said, whoa
Nothing is what you get
And it's all you need
It's all you need

All, all, all that you need

Come near
Show me all your tears
Show me all your tears how you're fall, yeah you're falling apart

We're alive
Only gonna die
Only gonna die and I'm fall, yeah I'm falling apart

Oh Lord
Kick open the door
Kick open the door yeah I'm fall, yeah I'm falling apart
Apart
Apart
Apart

So get it out of your head

After all that was said, whoa
Giving up and giving in
Oh, nothing is what you get
But it's all you need
It's all you need

(Born into life) This time, this time
(Born into life) For a lie
(Born into life) This time, this time
(Born into life) Call a lie
(Born into life) This time, this time

Giving up and giving in, whoa
Know your heart is dead
It's all you need

All that we need, all that we need, all that we need
All that we need, all that we need, all that we need
