

The Obsidian Conspiracy

Nevermore

Blank in your selfish state
And enraged

Never should one die
That cannot decide the truth
Never should one cry
So suffer the children

The sick ... around the stage
Black expressions ... some rage

Create, and deny
Your subversive wings
The obsidian conspiracy is rising
Justify your shame
The obsidian conspiracy is rising

We godless of the consequence
We drown inside our arrogance
We choose to bring our nameless
To this ... so shameless

Never should one die
That never could see absolute
Never should one cry
Let nothing destroy them

The planets align in a difference to feed the plague
This black agenda of hate is born of pain

Create, and deny
Your subversive wings
The obsidian conspiracy is rising
Justify your shame
The obsidian conspiracy is rising

The coming waves and silent rage
Will ... the see of glass
And in its wake, all the ... remains

Never should one die
That cannot decide the truth
Never should one cry
So suffer the children

Create, and deny
Your subversive wings
The obsidian conspiracy is rising
Justify your shame
The obsidian conspiracy is rising
