Neverstore

I met her at this shithole place,
At first I liked her pretty face
She bought a drink with crystal ice,
Seducing men with pick up lines

Some girls are just so fucking tragic,
Wanting to be something erotic
Wanna be some kind of object for men
And don't care if they're losing themselves

No,
I don't know if I like your perfect style,
I don't think that I'll call on Monday,
You're so selfcentered, so damn ignorant
Not my type, you're such a loser.

She tried to converse with my eyes
I thought why not for this time
Later at night when I walked home
I was glad I walked alone

Some girls are just so fucking tragic
Wanting to be something erotic
Wanna be some kind of object for men
And don't care if they're losing themselves

I don't know if I like your perfect style,
I don't think that I'll call on Monday,
You're so selfcentered so damn ignorant
Not my type, you're such a loser
