Sincerely

Nevertheless

Once again you compromised
There's no life in your hopeless eyes
But it's just like yesterday
If you listen to what they say

And you feel hopeless And you feel lost And you feel hopless And you feel lost

And you're tired of playing the fool
All your tears can form a pool or heartbreak and hopelessness

You head this life like all the rest

And you feel hopeless And you feel lost And you feel hopless And you feel lost

Open your eyes, dear friend See that this is not the end 'Cause there's a man before you lived With the love and power to forgive
