

Barbed Wire

New Found Glory

We made blood boil
Turned many eyes red
They felt the earth shake the second our lips connected
We built our own house
It got rat infested
Set it on fire 'cause everything's replaceable
But you and our memories
No one can touch them

Because we're barbed wire
Two strands twisted to one
Razor sharp
No one will ever touch us
Yeah, we're barbed wire
Two strands twisted to one
Razor sharp
No one will ever touch us

Tripped over ourselves
We slept in the gutter
We rolled around in broken glass
Self-inflicted, but we had each other
To stop the infection from spreading throughout all our veins
With you, through the hardest moments
No one can steal them

Because we're barbed wire
Two strands twisted to one
Razor sharp
No one will ever touch us
Yeah, we're barbed wire
Two strands twisted to one
Razor sharp
No one will ever touch us

Got enough in our lives
Got enough, got enough in our lives to worry about
To worry about
Been through enough in our lives
Been through enough, through enough in our lives
Don't worry about
Don't worry about everyone else
With you, through the hardest moments
No one can steal them

We're barbed wire
Two strands twisted to one
Razor sharp
No one will ever touch us
Yeah, we're barbed wire
Two strands twisted to one
Razor sharp
No one will ever touch us
No one will ever touch us

Got enough in our lives

To worry about
